HOUSTON & CALGARY, Canada--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 29, 2024-- Civeo Corporation (NYSE:CVEO) today reported financial and operating results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2023.

"We ended 2023 in a solid financial position. Our continued discipline in capital allocation and strong cash flow enabled us to reach our target leverage ratio and return capital to shareholders through continued share repurchases and the initiation of a quarterly dividend. We continued to deliver strong results in the fourth quarter with revenues, Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow above expectations. In the fourth quarter, Australian Adjusted EBITDA increased 64% compared to the fourth quarter of 2022, driven by the third consecutive quarter of record billed rooms in our owned villages coupled with improved margins in our Australian integrated services business benefiting from our inflation mitigation efforts," said Bradley J. Dodson, Civeo's President and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Dodson continued, "Additionally, we are excited to announce that the sale of McClelland Lake Lodge was completed earlier this year. The majority of the proceeds were received in the fourth quarter with the remainder received in January. We were awarded the transportation contract for the assets, which is currently in progress, and will continue to pursue opportunities related to this sale as well as other opportunities to redeploy underutilized assets."

Mr. Dodson added, "Despite the wind-down of LNG-related activity in Canada, we entered 2024 with significant strength and flexibility. We will continue to execute on our capital allocation framework we announced in September that includes a quarterly dividend and opportunistic share repurchases while maintaining a prudent leverage ratio and investing in growth at attractive economics."

Fourth Quarter 2023 Results

In the fourth quarter of 2023, Civeo generated revenues of $170.8 million and reported net income of $23.0 million, or $1.55 per diluted share. During the fourth quarter of 2023, Civeo produced operating cash flow of $40.0 million, Adjusted EBITDA of $17.4 million and free cash flow of $39.2 million.

By comparison, in the fourth quarter of 2022, Civeo generated revenues of $162.2 million and reported a net loss of $13.0 million, or $1.31 per diluted share. The loss resulted in part from $5.7 million in costs associated with impairments on assets in Australia and the U.S. During the fourth quarter of 2022, Civeo produced operating cash flow of $29.4 million, Adjusted EBITDA of $15.1 million and free cash flow of $25.8 million.

Overall, the increase in Adjusted EBITDA in the fourth quarter of 2023 compared to 2022 was primarily due to increased billed rooms at the Australian Bowen Basin villages and improved margins in the Australian integrated services business, partially offset by the expected wind-down of LNG-related Canadian mobile camp activity, including $5.6 million in mobile camp demobilization costs.

Full Year 2023 Results

For the full year 2023, the Company reported revenues of $700.8 million and net income of $30.2 million, or $2.01 per diluted share. Adjusted EBITDA for the full year 2023 was $102.0 million. This compared to revenues of $697.1 million and net income of $2.2 million, or $0.21 loss per diluted share, for the full year 2022. Adjusted EBITDA was $112.8 million in 2022. Results for the full year of 2023 reflect the impact of weakened Australian and Canadian dollars relative to the U.S. dollar, which decreased revenues and Adjusted EBITDA by $28.8 million and $5.7 million, respectively.

The decrease in Adjusted EBITDA in 2023 as compared to 2022 was largely driven by the wind-down of LNG-related activity in Canada and the impact of weakened Canadian and Australian dollars, partially offset by significant improvement across our Australian business.

The term Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure that is defined as EBITDA adjusted to exclude certain other unusual or non-operating items. EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not measures of financial performance under generally accepted accounting principles and should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for net income or cash flow measures prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or as a measure of profitability or liquidity. Additionally, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies. Civeo has included EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA as supplemental disclosures because its management believes that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA provide useful information regarding its ability to service debt and to fund capital expenditures and provide investors a helpful measure for comparing Civeo's operating performance with the performance of other companies that have different financing and capital structures or tax rates. Civeo uses EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA to compare and to monitor the performance of its business segments to other comparable public companies and as a benchmark for the award of incentive compensation under its annual incentive compensation plan.

(3) The term net leverage ratio is a non-GAAP financial measure that is defined as net debt divided by bank-adjusted EBITDA. Net debt, bank-adjusted EBITDA and net leverage ratio are not financial measures under GAAP and should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for total debt, net income (loss) or cash flow measures prepared in accordance with GAAP or as a measure of profitability or liquidity. Additionally, net debt, bank-adjusted EBITDA and net leverage ratio may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies. Civeo has included net debt, bank-adjusted EBITDA and net leverage ratio as a supplemental disclosure because its management believes that this data provides useful information regarding the level of the Company's indebtedness and its ability to service debt. Additionally, per Civeo's credit agreement, the Company is required to maintain a net leverage ratio below 3.0x every quarter to remain in compliance with the credit agreement.
