

Civeo Appoints Andrew S. Fraser as President, Canada

July 2, 2024

Fraser brings extensive U.S., Canadian and international executive management experience

AI Schoening to retire after 13-year career at Civeo

HOUSTON & CALGARY, Alberta--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 2, 2024-- Civeo Corporation ("Civeo" or the "Company") (NYSE:CVEO) today announced the appointment of Andrew "Andy" S. Fraser, a dynamic and experienced leader, as President, Canada, effective August 19, 2024. He succeeds AI Schoening, Senior Vice President, Canada, who will retire after serving 13 years at Civeo. Mr. Schoening will work closely with Mr. Fraser to ensure a smooth transition and is expected to remain a consultant for the Company for a period after his retirement.

Mr. Fraser brings extensive international executive management experience in sales, marketing, operations and customer relations to Civeo. He most recently served as CEO and Executive Chair of the Board of Directors of NCSG Crane and Heavy Haul, and prior to that was CEO of Camex Equipment Sales and Rentals. Additionally, during his 30 years with Finning International, he held a variety of executive roles across the company's Canadian and International operations. Mr. Fraser also has served as director on a number of boards across energy, manufacturing and distribution, and is currently serving on the boards of ATB Financial and Aquatera Utilities.

"I am pleased to welcome Andy to the Civeo leadership team," said Bradley J. Dodson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Civeo. "His deep experience in the Canadian market, in addition to the broad experience in U.S. and international markets, will be highly beneficial to all our stakeholders as we evaluate investments in growth opportunities and enhance our offerings. I also would like to express my deep gratitude to AI for his unwavering commitment over the past decade to Civeo's Canada business successfully managing through the pandemic and repositioning the business for the next decade."
